Rebuttal By Winning.

Just 3 weeks ago, The Anti-New York Times published a piece titled: Globalist "Soft Power" NGOs Destroyed. The key punchlines read were as follows:

"So thorough is the slow motion rout of the Cabal that now, even some of the poorest, smallest and most vulnerable Third World states have gotten into the act of expelling NGO do-gooders and Fake Charity fronts."

"That dirty game of "Soft Power" for manipulating the politics of target nations from within is now over!"

Told ya! (toot toot)

What is playing out now -- and in a very public manner -- is the predicted "replay" From the Q York Slimes article:

"President Trump amplified unfounded claims on Thursday that the government had been paying news media outlets to generate positive coverage of Democrats. The conspiracy theories appear to have been generated by records showing payments for something much more innocuous: subscriptions."

Mr. Trump said on his Truth Social site that "billions of dollars" from U.S.A.I.D. and other agencies had improperly gone to the "fake news media." He spread a claim that Politico, a "left wing rag," had received $8 million, and questioned if The New York Times and other outlets had also received payments."

Understand that the feigned indignation about "unfounded claims" and "conspiracy theory" coming from the "under submission" Slimes is part of the game in which Fake News will be made to bury themselves with the very shovel they have been given for the long overdue task.

"... THE BIGGEST SCANDAL OF THEM ALL."

Trump and Q Special Operative Imposter Elon Mask are bringing the heat as the Great Replay begins to unfold.

 Editor's Note: Trump's DELIBERATE and repeated misspelling of stolen as "stollen" is believed by "Anons" to match the bracketed (L) from Q posts referring to "dec(L)as" --- as in the devastating "declassification" that is to come.

1. The Financial Times confirms what the ANYT just wrote about "Soft Power" on January 16.

2. Images & caption from ANYT January 16 issue BEFORE the Trump inauguration.

There is a delightfully unexpected twist to this unfolding "biggest scandal of them all." It turns out that Soft Power money from USAID wasn't just being used to influence Fake News and politics in other countries. Consistent with Obongo's lifting of the prohibitions of government (CIA)-engineered propaganda operations on American soil, money was flowing directly into the pockets of media organizations and journalists not in the "down low" way of decades past --- but overtly. Though technically legal in that case, the implications, in terms of public perception, remain explosive enough to bring down the whole rotten structure of Fake News (replay).

The very thought of a CIA "Slush Fund" being used to pay journalists to print or broadcast this or that is not only scandalous in the extreme -- more importantly, it's simple enough of a scandal for even the bewildered subjects of the captive Kingdoms of Normiedom and Libtardia to understand. There's no defending this one -- and people will be punished! (replay)

Trust the plan.

Boobus Americanus 1: I read in the New York Times today that Trump is making baseless accusations about USAID payments to journalists.

Boobus Americanus 2: I could see that happening overseas -- but never on US soil.

*St. Sugar: Oh yess they did, Boobuss! It's called the Smith-Mundt Modernization Act.
Look it up!*

Editor: He'll learn soon enough.
